Represented for Seneca, Prof. Mark Shtern led his team with 8 students competed with 5 Ontario colleges and universities in the C3X in May, 2021. C3X is designed to increase and improve the skills, knowledge and adaptability of the next generation of Canadian information security and cyber defence professionals. This year's theme is Dark Cloud Rising. This is the 3rd year that ITAS students have achieved the greatest number of points out of the last 4 years.
