

Survey says? Seneca student wins big on Family Feud

Published 7/15/2021 by Michelle Nava

Family donates winnings to Autism Ontario, uses TikTok to raise awareness

March 24, 2021

Earlier this month, a Seneca student and her family “played the Feud” and the winner was their efforts to raise awareness about autism.

Carolina Miceli, a student in the Public Administration graduate certificate program, and her family were contestants on CBC’s Family Feud Canada and won $10,000, a portion of which they are donating to Autism Ontario.

Read full article here: Public Administration student wins big tags : seneca-business, seneca-business-news, senecaproud