Sun Life has made it easier for you to name and change your beneficiary designation for your group life insurance benefits. You can log into mysunlife.ca and use the new online beneficiary feature.

You must be registered on the Sun Life member portal to use this feature. If you have not already registered for a Sun Life account, you may do so by following the steps on the enclosed "Registering online" instructions.

Instructions on how to record your beneficiary designation can be found on the enclosed "Naming a beneficiary for your life insurance benefit is an important step to take" document.

You may wish to record your beneficiary online even if you are not making a change to your current beneficiary designation.
