Employees from across America have submitted their baby photos to support the launch of the Love Our Students Month as part of the Campaign for Students' Service's employee giving program. The month-long initiative helps to fund financial aid opportunities, improve service's learning environment and strengthen the student experience.

The month will launch on Jan. 21 with the live stream award of the Baby Photo Guessing Contest, and run until Feb. 28 featuring opportunities to give and participate in virtual events all month long.
