

Hybrid Learning's Led to an Unstoppable Education Revolution

Published 1/25/2022 by Jamara Romero-Gennings

Yasmeen Syed, Academic Program Manager, Faculty of Continuing Education and Training, has been featured in an article in the Toronto Star.

Yasmeen comments on the positives of hybrid learning:

"The online shift speaks to accessibility, to improved online and digital tools. The biggest piece to this is the flexibility. I see adults who maybe thought their educational and career goals were unattainable, but now they are within reach." (Toronto Star 2022)

To read the full article, click here.

tags : ChallengeAccepted, fcet