Final Grades Submission

- Navigate to the to input final grades. It can be accessed from the Employee i3 link on the MySeneca homepage.

- Review Seneca's Grading Policy.
- Review the grades chart for details about the use of these temporary grades.
- Follow the instructions and ensure all classes are graded and set to approved by 9 a.m. on Monday, April 25.

Promotion Meetings

These activities are a coordinated effort between the academic areas and the Registrar's Office with a focus on supporting students' progression with accurate and timely updates to student records. To ensure success, we encourage academic areas to prioritize the required promotion meeting activities in the order listed below.

Navigate to the to perform the following actions:

- Grades can be changed, or outstanding grades can be added directly in the system during promotion meetings.
- Review records with a temporary academic standing of Reassessment Needed. Add an advising comment to indicate how it should be updated.
- Review records with a pending transfer requests. Add an advising comment to either approve or deny each student's request.
- Review records with outstanding academic requirements and if applicable perform tasks to update the students' record to fulfil the graduation requirements.
