Within the same month as becoming a PRME signatory in January 2021, Seneca Business formally established a governance structure and a project team to assess, develop and implement programs and initiatives to realise our PRME objectives.

Under the leadership of Shahrzad Farzinpak, Chair of School of HR & Global Business, the PRME Team is a multi-disciplinary team of faculty with the mandate to embed the principles of sustainability, ethics and responsibility in our course offerings, research, and partnerships models. Guided by the PRME Seven Principles, the Working Group has developed a roadmap that guided our roll-out of these programs and initiatives.

Members of the PRME Team are:

- Kerri Knudsen
- Marko Jovanovic
- Dwangelyn Kayle Palma
- Panagiotis Panagiotakopoulos
- Stephen Phoon
- Anitta Toma

The PRME Team welcomes contribution of all volunteers. We would like to hear your innovative ideas on how to raise the sustainability profile of our business school.
