Do you have ideas that will mobilize Canadians to take action for nature?

Canadian wildlife are facing serious threats, including climate change and habitat loss. WWF-Canada is calling on Canadians to take hands-on action to help steward, protect and restore nature in communities where they live, learn and work.

WWF-Canada is calling on post-secondary students to come design and pitch their best ideas to inspire action at Designing Change for a Living Planet 2022 from June 11 – June 18.

Apply online by Sunday May 29, 2022. Successful applicants will be notified by June 1, 2022 and placed on a team by WWF-Canada.
