Blackboard Ultra is coming to Seneca for winter 2023!

Blackboard Ultra is the latest iteration of the Blackboard Learning Management System. It is designed to be accessible and mobile-friendly, providing ease of use for faculty and instructors and a consistent look and feel across courses for students.

Want to learn more about Blackboard Ultra? Come to one of our "First Look at Blackboard Ultra" upcoming webinars. In the webinar, we'll take a tour through the main components that make up the Blackboard Ultra interface. We'll explore the types of content you can make and some of the tools you have available. This is not meant as a comprehensive overview of Blackboard Ultra, just an introduction to get you feeling comfortable and excited about it!
