

Water Walk at King Campus

Published 10/16/2023 by Melanie Gao

Carmen Schlamb and students from her The Blue Planet class walked down to Lake Seneca to honour the water and bring attention to the need to protect, preserve and conserve waterways as a source of all life.

Carmen and Elder Blu talked about water scarcity on Indigenous land still today and how we need to act and do our part to preserve and keep our waters clean.

Click to see photos from the Water Walk.

tags : experientiallearning