

Generating Assignment Prompts

Published 5/13/2024 by Dani Bobak

The AI Design Assistant can generate assignment prompts based on your course content.

Generating Assignment Prompts

1. Select the plus icon (+) on the course content page.

2. Select Create from the drop-down. The Create Item panel is displayed.

3. Select Assignment. The New Assignment panel is displayed.

4. Select the stars icon to Auto-generate assignment. (It might look like this or this .)

5. You can choose from one of the generated assignment prompts or you can add more information in the Define the assignment pane:

☐ Exploring the Concept of Personal Identity

In a 250-word essay, explore the concept of personal identity. Reflect on how different experiences, relationships, and cultural factors shape our sense of self. Provide specific examples from your own life or the lives of others to support your analysis. You may also include a photograph or a reference list to enhance your discussion. Consider the various perspectives that have influenced your understanding of personal identity and critically evaluate their impact. Finally, discuss how your evolving understanding of personal identity can inform your relationships, career choices, and interactions with others.

Cognitive level: Evaluate

☐ Analyzing Ethical Dilemmas in Business

In a 300-word report, analyze an ethical dilemma faced by a company in the business industry. Select a real-life scenario that involves conflicting values and moral principles. Describe the situation, identify the stakeholders involved, and discuss the potential consequences of different courses of action. Use a diagram or a mock scenario to illustrate the dilemma and its potential impacts. Apply ethical theories and frameworks to evaluate the possible solutions and their implications. Finally, propose a well-reasoned recommendation for addressing the ethical dilemma based on your analysis and justify your choice using an infographic or a presentation.
