Library Services

Version 3

Seneca Libraries provides opportunities and resources for everyone at Seneca to engage, learn, discover, and create. Our digital collection of databases, books, magazines, journals, and videos are tailored to your learning, research and recreational interests. Whether you need help finding eBooks, academic articles, citing your sources in MLA or APA, Seneca Libraries has the resources to support your learning experience. Get started by visiting our library website.

Looking to add a textbook to the Seneca library?

The request to purchase form is located on the faculty guide collection page

Alternatively, a direct link to the form can be used.