Seneca Business' SIP Report 2023-2024

Seneca Business has effectively incorporated the Principles for Responsible Management Education (PRME) across its academic and operational framework. Our latest SIP Report for 2023-2024 highlights our commitment to these principles – Purpose, Values, Teach, Research, Partner, Practice, and Share—into our curriculum, faculty development, student engagement, and partnerships, aiming to cultivate responsible business leaders for the future. This report highlights the information submitted via PRME Commons.
