Centred around the theme of "Create, Challenge, Connect," Teaching & Learning Day Spring 2026 is taking place on Tuesday, April 28, 2026.

This in-person conference at Newnham Campus will provide an opportunity to showcase and celebrate the diverse achievements and innovative contributions of Seneca faculty to teaching and learning.

Our keynote speaker for the conference is Dr. Mayu Nishimura, Associate Professor, Psychology at McMaster University. Her keynote address will focus on student motivation. We will also be offering some fun activities and engaging workshops during this conference.
