

Academic services for faculty

Version 9

Published 8/16/2020 by Anonymous Last updated 8/22/2020 7:25 PM by Anonymous

Classrooms

All classrooms and computer labs are equipped with a computer, screen and projector. For instructions on using the e-classroom equipment, please see the

Teaching and learning tips:

-
-
-
- Student Conduct Office

Multi-section courses

Normally, for courses with three or more sections, a Course Lead will be assigned. The Course Lead is responsible for co-ordinating midterms and final exams across different sections. Ask your Hiring Manager if you are unsure whether your course has a Lead.

Learning Centre

Seneca's Learning Centre is located at Newnham, King, Markham and Seneca@York. It provides free peer tutoring to students that require academic help.

Libraries

Seneca Libraries provide students, faculty and staff with resources and services both online and on-site to enhance academic pursuits. Our libraries offer print, audio visual and electronic resources including books, magazines, journals, videos, dvds, slides, recordings and a variety of topical databases.

Additional teaching and learning support from the library:

- MLA/APA
- copyright

- other services

My.Seneca/Blackboard

My.Seneca/Blackboard is Seneca's one-stop online resource providing access to course materials, the option to look up resources and the tools to communicate with students. Utilizing portal technology, My.Seneca is customizable so that students can get the information that they need.

My.Seneca is available to all employees and students of the college on-site and remotely. The courses will be displayed on My.Seneca after you have made them available to students and not until the first day of class.

Documents and tips to help you add content and activities to a My.Seneca course/organization, as well as instructions on how to use features and tools can be found on My.Seneca Help.

Test Centre

Seneca's Test Centre is located at Newnham, King, Markham and Seneca@York. The Test Centre provides various testing services including:

- invigilation of testing for students with accommodations
- skills assessment testing
- a location for students to write missed tests and exams, with the professor's permission
- out of Centre exams (service for students writing non-Seneca exams)
- online test submission services
- Ontario Apprenticeship Testing

Quick links

-

tags : blackboard, multi-section-courses, my.seneca, seneca-learning-centre, seneca-library, seneca-test-centre