About

Seneca uses the Blackboard Learning Management System (LMS) branded as Learn@Seneca.

There are many benefits to both students and faculty in using an LMS, such as having course content, assignments, interactions, grades, etc. available 24/7 and organized in one spot; and having a set of rich features available for collaboration, alternative assessment, and new pedagogical approaches.

Seneca has a licence for this tool.

Tips for using the tool

The Teaching & Learning Centre has how-to articles, videos, and more on the website.

If you're new to Learn@Seneca, begin with the Blackboard Ultra Crash Course. In this crash course, the Teaching & Learning Centre takes you through the main features of Blackboard Ultra so you can get the information you need.

The weighted column can be a professor's best friend when it comes to calculating progress throughout a term, learn to configure weighted grades (Setting Up the Overall Grade \(Weighted Total\) or Setting Up the Overall Grade \(Grand Total\)).

Keeping Student Information Safe When Using Online Tools

The Quick guide to secure handling of confidential student information for faculty using online learning tools \(.PDF\) (developed by the Teaching & Learning Centre and ITS) helps faculty choose secure online tools for teaching. The guide provides guidelines and examples to help faculty consider the information students might be giving up when using a new tool. It is intended for quick use of free or low-cost online tools and not for larger, more costly tools that require more rigorous data privacy vetting.
