

Faculty Profile - John Toplu

Published 11/6/2020 by Anonymous

John Toplu joins Seneca with more than 18 years of experience in auditing and accounting, having written various forensic accounting and fraud audit reports and having worked at major audit firms such as Deloitte, RSM and Anderson Consulting. John has a PhD in Accounting and Finance, an MSc in Forensic Accounting and a BBA from Istanbul University. As an experienced fraud auditor and forensic accountant, John has provided consultancy services to companies preparing restructuring projects, business valuations and investment decisions. John has also published several articles and a book about postponement of bankruptcy and its applications.

SB Newsletter: Fall 2019

tags : @senecabusiness