Seneca Learning Centres provide academic support to students in foundational skills (writing, math, study/learning skills, English) as well as through course support (peer tutoring and Supported Learning Groups).

Seneca students are able to access these academic support services at no extra cost:

- Peer Tutoring for courses
- Group study sessions called Supported Learning Groups (SLG)
- English language and writing skills development
- Drop-in math support workshops and after-hours math tutoring
- Learning skills strategies and support

Visit the Learning Centres website for more information.
