Having completed all of last year's summative program reviews, we are now busy working on the new round of reviews for 2017. The faculty facilitator who helps guide the team plays an important role in the process.

2017 Program Quality Review Facilitator Profile: Professor Wendy Meininger-Dyk

Wendy Meininger-Dyk is faculty in the School of Environmental and Civil Engineering Technology where she teaches Urban Planning and a variety of other subjects. She has facilitated reviews for Program Quality (PQ) since 2012, working with multiple program areas from various Seneca campuses. Working with PQ has allowed her a close-up view of the high level of faculty expertise across the college and the passion that faculty have for their programs. She is currently facilitating a review within the School of Aviation and assisting on a degree-level self-study.
