

Faculty Reflections

Published 6/22/2020 by Ashley Ribbel

in the June 2020 issue

Two faculty members from Seneca Business reflect on the sudden change from face-to-face and hybrid classes to fully online, due to COVID-19. Melissa Warner and Sachi Kara share their experiences, including the challenges they faced and what they learned in the process of this transition:

- What I Learned During the Transition to Online Classes by Melissa Warner, School of Leadership and Human Resources
- The Brighter Side of the Global Pandemic by Sachi Kara, School of Accounting and Financial Services

View the June 2020 issue of the Academic Newsletter.

June 2020 issue

tags : faculty-reflections, june-2020