

Academic Newsletter – We want your feedback!

Published 1/19/2017 by Ashley Ribbel

in the Winter 2017 issue

In this issue, there is a balance of short articles on teaching and learning as well as updates from the Program Quality unit, the Registrar's Office, and the Teaching & Learning Centre.

The newsletter is a work in progress and we encourage your ideas and feedback. Please send your comments to Ashley.Ribbel@senecacollege.ca. Our plan is to publish the newsletter three times a year; however, if we find a positive response, we will increase the number accordingly.
